FOREWORD

In presenting the 1950 edition of the Comet, the staff wishes to gratefully acknowledge the co-operation extended by the faculty and students who helped in any way to make a yearbook possible.

We would like to especially thank Mr. Watson, Photographer, Mr. Haist, Principal, Miss Pattinson, Assistant Principal, Miss Houston, Advisor, Miss Murphy and her art students — Walter Markey, Bob Chreck and Bob Watson, who assisted our Art Editors, Clarabel Beebe and Lois Federspiel with the art work, Theresa Clark and Kathryn Fechter co-editors and the staff members.

We sincerely hope that when you look at this book in the future it will bring back happy memories of your past school years at Webber.

DEDICATION

We, the first Journalism class, respectfully dedicate this year's "Comet" to our teacher and advisor, Miss Frances Houston in appreciation of her time, patience and guidance in helping us to prepare and issue this, our first printed "Comet".

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ETHEL CASE, who taught the fourth grade, was a member of the Webber faculty from September 1947 until the time of her death in May 1949.

MISS LEOLA BRUDEN, who taught the fourth grade, was a member of the Webber faculty from September 1926 until January 1950.

It is with gratitude in our hearts that we pay tribute to these departed members of our faculty. As each individual goes along life's highway, he leaves something of his personality with those whom he contacts. Just so, we have been touched by the lives of Miss Bruden and Mrs. Case. Their spirit of friendliness, their great love for children, their years of service to the profession will be remembered by all. Our storehouse of memories will be brighter for having known them.

We can say with Sara Teasdale:

"Into my heart's treasury
I slipped a coin
That time cannot take
Nor thief purloin,—
Oh, better than the minting
Of a gold-crowned king
Is the safe-kept memory
Of a lovely thing."

CLASS WILL

The 9-A class possesses several outstanding qualities. We are worried by the fact that future ninth graders might not have these virtues and we fear that if pupils do not have them Webber could not exist.

Therefore, having the interest of the school at heart and wishing to be sure of its success, in this, our last will and testament, we hereby make the following bequests:

To Carol Beyers, Florence Dyer wills her long skirts and short hair.

Marlene Rudenko wishes to leave her musical ability to Marion DeLavern.

Barbara Brady, Darlene Chartier, Ronald Spencer, and Jerry Kurek leave their crowns to future kings and queens of Webber.

To Betty Diffell, Ruth Nawrock leaves her promptness.

Marilyn Dinninger wishes to leave her willingness to work to anyone who can find the energy.

Jean Periard and Gloria Konesko would like to will their partnership to future Webber friends.

Gene Patterson would like to will her charm to Merreill Eimers.

To Jimmy Baker, Eugene Ezop wills his neatness in dress.

Theresa Clark would like to will her sunny disposition to Rosella Yeager.

Jerry Branch would like to leave his pencil to future writers, (if they use it more than Jerry).

Pat Domino and Barbara Chowaniec leave their shortness to future Webber six-footers.

To anyone who wishes to be a gym teacher, Doris McCully leaves her life's desire.

Kay Leitow leaves her sweet personality to any student who feels gloomy.

To anyone who wants to sing like a bird, Kay Slate leaves her wonderful voice.

Ronald Spencer leaves his good looks to anyone who can find the "magic" formula.

Charleen Papworth would like to will all her silly jokes to anyone who can imitate them.

To Bill Sargent, Bob Pildner would like to leave his height.

Ronnie Couitcher would like to will his package of gum to Jimmy Woodington.

Gerry Bhirdo wishes to will his wonderful voice to future Webber "crooners."

Nancy Ruffer leaves her good will as an example for next year's ninth graders.

To anyone who desires the position, Peter Washabaugh leaves his place as president of the Student Council.

Gerald Glave leaves his curly hair to Bob Dennison with the formula for its care.

Mary Kelly and Abigail Paquette will their strong voices to future Webber cheerleaders.

Cynthia Kren wishes to leave her pleasant smile to future Webberites.

Katherine Jablonski wills her coquettish ways to Dorothy Parker.

Neoma Lutzke would like to leave her front line height in volley ball and her nick-name "Luck" to Lorraine Carbeno.

Kathryn Fechter wills her bottle of red tint to future girls of Webber who want red hair.

HIGH

THE COMET STAFF

Co-Editor, Theresa Clark; Adviser, Miss Frances Houston; Co-Editor, Kathryn Fechter.

It was the task of the Journalism class of Webber School to publish the yearbook. In the past we have always had a printed-mimeograph, except for a few promotion numbers of The Webber Star. This year, the class through hard work securing ads, have raised the funds for a printed yearbook.

We sincerely hope you will enjoy the memories that we have tried to collect through pictures and articles.

It also furnished the vocal numbers for the Spring Concert in May. This concert helps finance a scholarship for two week's study at Interlochen National Music Camp. Eligibility for the scholarship requires two semesters of vocal music training and the ability to pass sight reading and vocal quality tests.

The Webber Choir is directed by Miss Maida Cohan.

In order to solve the many problems that arise pertaining to student government, the Student Council was formed. Presidents from each advisory make up the Student Council. It was found easier to discuss problems with just twenty-four students rather than with the whole school.

This year the Student Council decided to do something about the award system. The committee members who worked on this project were as follows: Kay Leitow, chairman; Rita Mahar, Cynthia Kren, Gerald Glave, Bob Chreck, and Peter Washabaugh, members. It was decided that 200 points would earn a student a small "w", 500 points would earn a large "W", and 750 points would earn a gold pin. This system will give students who do not go out for sports a chance to earn a letter.

Whenever changes are made that affect the student body, the Council studies the situation and makes recommendations. Then representatives take them to the home rooms for discussion. The Student Council helps elect the King and Queen of the Band Boost.

The Student Council sends two representatives to Saginaw High School who co-operate with the Junior Citizens of the city, on citywide projects.

The Student Council gave a Halloween party which proved to be a hugh success.

BASKETBALL

We look at our Basketball Team with pride. For the first time in ten years we won the City Championship in the Junior High Division. Bob Pildner, who rated second high in scoring, was a great help in achieving our success. When one sees Bob play, a reason for our championship is very evident. In one stride, Bob's legs can cover six feet of the floor. We hope that our next year's team will be just as good.

VOLLEYBALL

The volleyball team of '49 and '50 came in second for championship. They made a spirited showing in playing South Intermediate. The girls won the first game, but lost the second contest by a score of 15 to 17. This score gave South an undisputed championship. If South had not won, the championship would have been shared by South Intermediate and Webber Junior. Good luck to the 1950 and 1951 team.

BAND BOOST

Scotch, Irish, Dutch, Polish, Chinese, Gypsy, Mexican and American singers and dancers were all represented in the 1950 Band Boost.

The Band Boost opened with the crowning of the Queen and King. Thursday's King and Queen were Ronald Spencer and Darlene Chartier. Friday's King and Queen were Jerry Kurek and Barbara Brady.

The band played "Hail, Hail, All Around the World" as played in various countries. "A Wee Bit of Scotch" was first on the novelty acts, followed by "Mac's Irish Follies". "The Land of the Wooden Shoes", "Sipping Cider", "In Gay Paree", "A Polish Polka", and "A Little Vodka", ended the first half of the Band Boost.

During the second half of the program the band and orchestra played several numbers. Especially delightful numbers presented were: "By the Gypsy Campfiire", "Chinese Serenade", "Estrellita", "Cielito Lindo", "Managua Nicaragua", "Home Sweet Home", "The Way You Look Tonight", and "Taps to Webber". Several novelty numbers by the choruses concluded the musical numbers.

The Webber School P.T.A. presented "Chief Kick-A-Poo's Medicine Show." It starred several members of the faculty and P.T.A. members.

Those taking part were: Mr. Leonard Soper, Master of Ceremonies; Mr. A. B. Haist, Dr. Cure-all; Mr. Walter Korkus, Chief Kick-A-Poo; Mr. Richard Miller, Little Kick-A-Poo; Mr. C. J. Watson, Lone Ranger who rode the Buckin' Mule. Plus a chorus of dancing girls composed of: Mrs. Verne Sherman, Mrs. Paul Rhodes, Mrs. John Eimers, Mrs. Carl Bhirdo, and Mrs. Walter Korkus. Mrs. Charles Kreuger sang "Alice Blue Gown".

FAREWELL TO WEBBER

Farewell, dear Webber School, we say
For now has come the time to part
The memories we hold of you,
Will ever linger in our heart.
We leave our teachers fond and dear
Who helped in tasks both great and small,
"Work first," they said, "and then the fun
Is good advice to one and all."
We'll come some day to call again
When life's moved on toward our goals,
We'll think of you and our good-bye
And how you've helped to guide our souls.
